

MacPherson Institute Orientation

The MacPherson Institute is located within the Mills Library on McMaster main campus. On the McMaster University campus map, we are located at building #10.

There are a number of ways to enter the building, but for your first time entering the space, it is simplest to enter the building from the North or West side as shown below.

Entering the building (west side).

Entering Mills Library foyer.

Proceed through Library towards elevators on south side of building.

Press button for elevator 3.
Please note: ONLY elevator 3 will take you directly to the front entrance of the MacPherson Institute.

Press "MI" elevator button. Doors will close on the north side of the elevator and open on the south side of the elevator.

Welcome to the 5th floor for the MacPherson Institute!

Scan your employee ID/keycard on the scanner to unlock the door and enter the front entrance.

You have now entered the front entrance to the MacPherson Institute.
