

Humans vs. Generative AI Assignment

Course: HUMAN 1DL3:Digital Literacy for the Humanities

Criteria	Level 4	Level 3	Level 2	Level 1	Criterion Score
Critical Analysis	16–20 points The analysis engages deeply with both passages.	11–15 points The analysis engages moderately with both passages.	6–10 points The analysis engages occasionally with both passages.	0–5 points The analysis does not engage with either passage, or only engages with one passage.	/ 20
Reflection	16–20 points The reflection on the value of generative AI is critical and makes clear connections to the passage and the assignment.	11–15 points The reflection on the value of generative AI is generally critical and makes some connections to the passage and the assignment.	6–10 points The reflection on the value of generative AI is somewhat superficial and/or makes few connections to the assignment.	0–5 points The reflection on the value of generative AI is superficial and/fails to clearly state a position. There are no connections to the passage and the assignment.	/ 20

Criteria	Level 4	Level 3	Level 2	Level 1	Criterion Score
Expression	7.6–10.0 points The writing is clear and concise. Virtually no spelling or grammatical errors.	5.1–7.5 points The writing is generally clear and concise. There are some spelling or grammatical errors that generally do not impede readability.	2.6–5.0 points The writing is sometimes unclear and/or overly wordy. There are significant spelling or grammatical errors that occasionally impede readability.	0.0–2.5 points The writing is consistently unclear and/or overly wordy. There are significant spelling or grammatical errors that severely impede readability.	/ 10

Total	/ 50
-------	------

Overall Score

Level 4

16 points minimum

Your assignment demonstrates careful consideration of the differences between human-generated and AI-generated content!

Level 3

14 points minimum

Your assignment has met all the requirements, but does not deeply reflect on the differences between human-generated and AI-generated content.

Level 2

10 points minimum

Your assignment demonstrates a grasp of core concepts, but the analysis is somewhat superficial. Consider how you can explore these concepts in greater depth!

Level 1

0 points minimum

Your assignment is missing key components and does not adequately address the questions outlined in the instructions.